seafield road blackrock

Blackrock itself enjoys an enviable commuter belt location on the east coast just outside Dundalk and is located midway between the major cities of Dublin and Belfast and their international airports. Access to the M1 Dublin/Belfast motorway is close by with Dublin Airport only a forty minute drive away. The train station is only a ten minute drive away offering a regular timetable for commuters travelling to Dublin and Belfast and the local bus service also operates between the village and Dundalk town centre.

The village enjoys a spectacular east coast setting with panoramic views of Dundalk Bay and the Cooley Mountains. Local amenities include breathtaking seafront walks, a magnificent sandy beach, 18 hole championship golf course, a primary schools, church, shops, renowned restaurants, a great variety of quaint pubs, and for the more athletic a dynamic range of watersport activities and leisure complexes.

With convenience to so many amenities and an exceptionally pleasant living environment, Blackrock has become increasingly popular as a preferred location for high quality housing and indeed a number one choice for discerning purchasers.

With a really enticing choice of detached and semi-detached homes, detached bungalows, townhouses and apartments, Earlsfort clearly demonstrates the usual standards of excellence that is the long established hallmark of developers PJ & EJ Doherty Ltd. So why not come along and just
